Men Who Are Better Than Their Neighbors Meet to Moralize.

MR. WANAMAKER CHIEF MOURNER

He Addresses the Gathering in Lachrymose Mood and Intimates That the Country is Going to the Dogs Under Republican Rule.

Philadelphia, May 14.—The Business Men's Republican League of Pennsylvania was organized this afternoon in the assembly room of the Bourse building. There were present representatives from 49 of the 52 Business Men's Republican leagues in the state.

men who have met here today is at once a witness to the dissatisfaction throughout the state, touching the existing political conditions. It also is an evidence of your deep determination to do something to give to Pennsylvania a better government. I believe this gathering at this time when the air is full of patriotism will stand as a proof or pledge that the battle begun nearly two years ago is still in progress, and going on without limit of time, strength, and money until the foes of good government are compelled to ground their arms.

"The country is not prosperous. Since the outset of the last presidential campaign the party, press and political leaders, generally fixed the November election of 1896 as the date of the beginning of good times. A full half of the year has expired since the will of the Republican party was declared. Thus far but one of the important issues of the campaign is nearing settlement and hardly any noticeable improvement of the wretched times is manifest. The tide soon set in strongly against the Republican party unless the depression of business is altered."

Idleness and want breed a bitter discontent, which will never be overcome until there are ample employments. "The foes America has to fear are not the sullen savage Turks, or the insurrectionists of Cuba, or the territory grasping British but they are our own patently heart tired people who have betrayed and disheartened, no longer have faith in their party, and will turn to any leadership that offer promise of better times, believing that worse times can never come than those now existing. It is a terrible thing to observe public sentiment adrift and uncapitained, and the people weeping away their affection to the old party."

From some points of view it might seem that there was not much to be done, except to suffer and wait. To see sixty-seven counties play a state convention, to make a platform, and nominate candidates for office while all the time it is one man that constitutes himself the convention, himself adopts a platform, himself adopts resolutions, himself nominates candidates, and himself adjourns, is a pitiable and discouraging spectacle; even if two generations of our people have become accustomed to this condition of things. The newspapers with very few exceptions, and these not in the metropolitan cities of this state have accepted the situation and are silent in the face of the gravest of wrongs that have ever confronted the people.

"The burning question of interest on state moneys is practically settled. The assured passage of the interest bill removes the anticipated issue on the treasury fight for this year, but the contest will be vigorously pushed for control of the county organizations that will have a vital bearing upon the great battle of '98 when thirty congressmen, a United States senator, twenty-five state senators, 216 representatives, a governor, lieutenant-governor and a secretary of the internal affairs are to be elected. There ought by that time to be an upheaval. It will come by organization. Let the masses deal and deal, but let our work be real and real."

Speeches were also made by Robert J. Moorehead, of Erie county, Prof. John Meigs, of Pottstown, Senator C. C. Kauffman, of Lancaster, E. B. Ludwig, of Erie county, Thomas Hopes, of West Chester, James Pollock, Philadelphia, Rudolph Blankenburg, Philadelphia, and others.

TELEGRAPH OPERATOR'S LUCK. E. W. Eisler, who has several times struck oil, gets another well.

Better, May 14.—E. W. Eisler, of this city, yesterday afternoon tapped the sand in his well on the Marburger farm, at Evans City, and it began flowing, the fluid shooting up over the top of the derrick. The capacity of the new strike is variously estimated at from 10 to 50 barrels an hour. It is said Eisler was anxious to dispose of an interest in this lease and shut the well down on top of the sand several weeks ago for the purpose of selling. No one would take it at any price, however, and he drilled it himself, and a fortune will be the result.

Eisler's oil ventures have been very lucky. A few years ago he was a telegraph operator in the Western Union office here, but secured some good leases about the old Petrusville field, and in a short time was worth $20,000. In the Whitestown pool he was perhaps the only operator who got out without a loss. Just before the decline of the field he sold his holdings to the Associated Producers for $25,000. Six months afterward the field was among the has-beens, and the wells petered out entirely. For some time he has been prospecting with indifferent success, and after sinking considerable money is rewarded with the present strike.

GOLDEN EAGLE CONVENTION. Knights Decide That the Harrisburg Meeting Was a Success.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 14.—The entire time was put in today by the grand castle of the Knights of the Golden Eagle in considering the new constitution and laws, which are subject to amendment and revision every five years. The additions consist chiefly of rulings on difficult points made by the chief officers during the five years. The work was finished this afternoon, and tonight the grand officers were installed. The new Grand Chief Hunsicker announced his appointments which do not differ except in some unimportant respects the list already published.

It was the unanimous opinion of the Eagles that this was one of the most successful meetings of the grand castle ever held. Before adjourning resolutions of thanks were adopted to all who assisted in making the meeting successful.

The grand castle adjourned at 11.15, after making the following nominations: Grand chief, W. H. Felty, of 32; grand vice chief, C. H. Webster, of 32; grand high priest, D. G. Lewis, of 37; J. H. Ritter, of 308; grand master of records, J. D. Barnes, of 24; D. Casselberry, of 14; grand keeper of exchequer, H. C. Gerhart, of 274; grand scribe, H. W. J. Morris, of 425; J. M. Shappell, of 18; E. H. Switzer, of 123; W. K. Lockard, of 273; W. W. Ligrans, of 85; B. Patterson, of 393; E. E. Hummel, of 23; H. Mattinger, of 15; J. C. Phillips, of 366; grand trustee, John Dyer, of 332; W. A. Wade, of 231; J. N. Rush, of 8; R. W. B. Cornelius, of 219; J. E. Thompson, of 281; H. Geiss, of C. Crumbraker, of 64; W. A. Wolke, of 48; grand first guard, F. W. Anton, of 19; E. W.
